Sarah Smith Installs International Monuments to Peace

Be sure to check out the new Peace Poles at both the Primary and the Intermediate campuses. International Peace Poles were erected last Friday during International Travelers week featuring the message "May Peace Prevail on Earth" in English, French, Spanish and Japanese.

In years to come, as part of the culminating ceremonies of the schools' International Travelers program, a new language will be added to the pole annually. Ultimately, each pole will include 12 languages. For more information, see the International Travelers page on the school's website under the School tab, in the Academics section.
